

Attention Students:

2017 IEEE BROADCAST SYMPOSIUM STUDENT POSTER SUBMISSION NOW OPEN

SESSION INFORMATION

- The Student Poster Competition recognizes the individual efforts of students who are actively working toward an undergraduate, graduate, or doctoral-level degree
- Multidisciplinary research projects are encouraged
- Papers on the research topic must be submitted to the Broadcast Technology Society by September 1, 2017
- Papers will be reviewed by a panel of BTS professionals
- Authors of accepted papers will be notified by a BTS member about creating a poster on the papers topic to display at the IEEE Broadcast Symposium
- Papers can be authored by more than one person, however one author is required to be present at the Symposium to display the poster and answer attendee questions
- Posters will be displayed in the exhibit hall during all exhibit hours on October 10 & 11
- On Thursday, October 12th there will be a submission chosen as the winning poster, the author will be presented with a winning certificate, prize and their paper will be published in the Broadcast Technology Society publication.

SUBMISSION CRITERIA

- The competition is open only to full-time students enrolled in an undergraduate, graduate, or doctoral degree program relating to the broadcast industry
- Awards and certificates are presented only to student presenters
- Completed doctorates, post-doctoral scholars, and professionals are not eligible to compete; however, as co-authors, they can be listed by the presenting student on the poster itself
- The poster presenter will receive a free conference registration, any additional person attending the conference will have to purchase a full conference registration
- Each applicant can submit only one paper to be considered, submissions are due by Sept. 1, 2017
- Presenters are required to be present and display their posters for the entire judging period, students who do not follow this rule will be disqualified
- Board assignments are given onsite at registration

Submit all papers to bts@ieee.org by September 1, 2017