

Digital Terrestrial Television broadcast technologies

This presentation will provide an overview of terrestrial digital technologies that are available for television. Four DTT technologies and standards will be summarised having more emphasis on DVB family of technologies. The evolution of DVB and ATSC technologies will be described.